In the seminar articles were presented on the topic “Role of Indian Languages in promoting Fintech for Digital India”. The Chief Guest of the programme was Ms. Anshuli Arya, Secretary, Department of Official Language, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India. The programme was presided over by Shri Ashok Chandra, Executive Director, Canara Bank. Shri Jaikis, Principal, College of Agricultural Banking, Reserve Bank of India, Shri Arvind Kumar Chaturvedi, General Manager, Central Office, Reserve Bank of India, Shri Dharambir, Deputy Director, Department of Financial Services, Ministry of Finance, Government of India, Shri Rajesh Kumar Singh, Chief General Manager, Canara Bank, Circle Office, Delhi, Shri Shrinath Joshi, Chief Learning Officer, Canara Institute of Bank Management, Manipal and Shri E Ramesh, Chief Official Language Officer of the Bank were present on the occasion.

Ms. Anshuli Arya, Secretary, in her address said that it is a matter of great happiness that today we are able to do our technical work in Hindi and other regional languages. Canara Bank has organized today's conference on a very relevant topic. Banking services are being provided by banks in 11 or 12 Regional Languages along with Hindi, I hope that in the coming days banks will include more regional languages so that banking services can be provided to the people of remote provinces as well.

Shri Ashok Chandra, Executive Director, Canara Bank said in his statement that the bank is bringing many digital products in the market for the convenience of customers. Indian languages are working as a link to promote them and make these digital products popular. He informed that recently the bank has launched a digital platform for financing SHGs and now all the SHG accounts will be opened digitally by the bank.

In the seminar, articles on the above topic were presented by 25 participants from various banks and financial institutions. The best article presenters were honored by Ms. Anshuli Arya, Secretary.
