

Canara Bank entered Forex arena in 1953 with the opening of its first Foreign Exchange Department in Mumbai. All forex transactions are centralized at Centralized Processing Cell - Forex Transactions (CPC-FT). It is a single point processing unit.

The Bank has an Integrated Treasury with a Forex dealing room located in Mumbai in India. Our London branch has a dealing room of its own. We are active in the Indian Forex market as well as in overseas Forex market. We provide a whole range of services and products like purchase and sale of Foreign Currency, forward bookings and other Forex hedging instruments like currency swaps. Our services are offered at an attractive cost to the customers of the Bank subject to the Bank's policies and exchange control / FEMA provisions laid down by the Regulatory Authorities from time to time.
